ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

Notice is given that Taupō District Council has recently adopted two bylaws which have come into force. These are the Solid Waste and Traffic Bylaws. The bylaws can be viewed on our website www.taupo.govt.nz/bylaws and copies of the bylaws can also be obtained from the Customer Service and Visitor Centre on 30 Tongariro Street, Taupō.

Solid Waste Bylaw

In accordance with the Local Government Act 2002 and the Waste Minimisation Act 2008.

The new Solid Waste Bylaw includes:

- Editorial changes to definitions section to improve clarity.
- Removal of a section giving reference to a revoked bylaw.
- Minor change to the wording in section 23 related to waste plan requirements for events.

Traffic Bylaw

In accordance with the Local Government Act 2002 and the Land Transport Act 1998

The new Traffic Bylaw includes:

- Adjusted definition section to create alignment between the Land Transport Act/Rule definitions and the bylaw.
- Amended section 13 to allow for berm parking to occur in the rural environment to protect access to recreation spaces where the only appropriate parking space is on the grass verge.
